Bobbitt With His Ottenheim Friends.

OTTENHEIM, Dec. 25th.—I spoke here yesterday evening and last night in the commodious hall of Charles Ensslin. They say they will get me up a law school here of $100 per month. Our great friend, Simon Petrey, was present and said he would attend and pay $20 per month. These people have indeed made the desert bloom as the rose. What a change wrought by industry and perseverance! I saw a young lady in my audience who was the most beautiful German girl I ever saw. That does not express the meaning wide enough. She was the most beautiful girl I ever saw and she was German. My host, Ensslin, has for his "frau" the very quintessence of all Germany. A more veritable queen never reigned in the culinary department. Mr. Ensslin is the very embodiment of noble generosity. He and his brigade of handsome boys took absolute possession of me and I have made his house my home during this most pleasant trip to the Highlands of Lincoln. I am writing these few lines in the store of John Wentzel, a prosperous German "merchant," and Simon Petrey is his clerk, my friend and your subscriber and admirer. This is a cold Christmas morning and a gay time here. I stayed all night at the hospitable home of John H. Sailor Saturday night and he insisted I should join him in a game of "seven-up." We played 10 sevens and I beat him five times and he beat me five, but what is most remarkable I turned the jack seven times. He said he had played all his life but never saw the like before. I do not play even for fun, but I could not resist the importunities of a clever man in his own house. Church bell ringing. FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT.

OTTENHEIM.

Mrs. G. M. Ballard, of Somerset, is visiting friends and relatives in this section.

Mrs. Henry Manda has the honor of having the nicest Christmas tree in Ottenheim.

Miss Rebecca Mullins, who taught the Ottenheim school, gave an entertainment and a treat to her pupils Friday.

Henry Woods bought of Ed Bowen a family mare for $50. John Bowen sold a nice combined mare to Henry James for $100.

Some of the boys in this section met on Brummit's peak and had a brilliant display of fire works Christmas night. It could be seen for miles.

Mrs. T. C. Manuel gave a temperance recitation at the Pine Grove Christmas tree that was very touching and every slave to strong drink should have heard it.

Miss Maggie Livingston, who has recently recovered from a severe spell of typhoid fever, was able to beat Sunday school Sunday, much to the delight of her host of friends. Ed Ballard was up from Somerset for a short visit during the holidays. Mrs. James Hammonds, of Richmond, is visiting her father, J. A. James.

The Christmas tree at Pine Grove church was a decided success. The tree was handsomely decorated and trimmed and the good citizens deserve much credit for their unceasing efforts in their noble deeds of charity. The entertainment by the Sunday school pupils was very creditable. Little Myrtle James, aged five, took the premium for the manner in which she recited and sung and played.

KINGSVILLE.

All members of the Pleasant Point church are earnestly requested to be present at our next meeting, Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 6th and 7th, 1906. R. R. Noel, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. McBee, of Charlestown, W. Va., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin. Miss Rosetta Hicks and brother, of Crescent Springs, are the guests of Miss Dora Rigney. Mrs. Fount Dishon and children visited relatives at Lexington. W. L. McCarty, of Stanford, was here a few days since. Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Gooch and pretty daughter, Miss Vernie, are guests of Daniel Hester and family. Misses Viola, Leona and Thelma Francis, of Eu-banks, are guests of their grandparents here. Miss Howe, of Cincinnati, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lane.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all druggists.

HIGHLAND.

Garrett Berry, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, is improving.

After a successful term, Miss Annie McKee's school came to a close Friday evening with a delightful entertainment, which showed careful training by both teacher and pupils.

The Christmas tree and entertainment given at Mt. Moriah by the teachers of the Sunday school and Miss Mary Wilson, teacher of the public school, was an enjoyable occasion to all present. The pupils of each school were kindly remembered with a nice present and a treat of candy and nuts.

Miss Ora Hutchison has returned from a visit to relatives at Walton. Mart Bastin spent Christmas with his children at Pittsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Waters, of Louisville, spent the holidays with Charles Warfield and wife. Miss Ollie James, who has a position in the High School at Anderson, Ind., is at home for a week with her mother, Mrs. Mattie James, who has recently moved here from Mercer. Harley Adams and wife have gone to Franklin, Ind., to reside. Mason and David Good-paster, of Brannon, are here and two of Highland's prettiest girls are wearing their sweetest smiles. Miss Hannah Meier is at home from college at Louisville, where she is taking a business course. Mrs. J. M. Atkins will spend the winter at Frankfort with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Milton.

MATRIMONIAL.

Arthur Caldwell and Miss Josephine Gooch were made one here Saturday.

Mack Hendren and Miss Margaret Hagan, both of the Kirksville section, were married last week.

William B. Ridgely, Controller of the Currency, and Miss Kate A. Deering were married in Washington.

Bright Herring, of Hubble, and Mrs. Mollie Gulley Swope, of Garrard, were married at Lancaster by Eld F. M. Tindler.

Mrs. Edith Alexander Bronston, daughter of George W. Alexander, the wealthy banker of Paris, has been granted a divorce from Thomas Hughes Bronston of Lexington on the ground of abandonment.

The wedding of Miss Clara D. D. Bell, of Lexington, and Julius S. Walsh, Jr., of St. Louis, was celebrated at Bell Place, the home of her mother, Mrs. Arthur Cary. The wedding was attended by hundreds of guests from a distance and was the most notable affair in the history of Lexington society.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Rev. W. H. Warren, late of New Zealand, will hold services at Goshen church Sunday next at 11 o'clock.

Dr. William Shelton will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning. There will also be communion services.

Two Christmas gifts amounting to $16,000 have been received by the Foreign Missionary Society of the Christian church.

The two general committees representing the Northern Presbyterian and Cumberland Presbyterian Churches, by unanimous vote in joint session at St. Louis agreed on a basis for the union of the two churches.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Porterville, California. "There is no doubt about it being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by all druggists."

Prof. Smith's graduates have secured fine positions in banks, mercantile and other enterprises, receiving $75 to $100 per month by investing $65 for tuition and board at Prof. Smith's College. Before attending, they received about $25. Write him and he will send you circulars and information how you can do the same. Address Wilbur R. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Penny's Drug Store.

"Yes! I'm a footpad."

"You appear to be proud of it."

"Why not? It's a step in the right direction. I was formerly in the life insurance business."

NEWS NOTES.

Scarlet fever has been declared epidemic in Hartford.

William Russell's home at Jackson was demolished by heavy wind.

A contest over the will of the late S. S. Brown, of Pittsburgh, is threatened. George B. Kimble, president and general manager of the Excelsior Coal Co., is dead.

William Beach and his wife and mother-in-law were fatally injured by the collapse of their home at Wheeling, W. Va. The house was being moved while the family still occupied it and the accident was caused by the joists suddenly giving way.

In the belief that the boy had already suffered too much, Gov. Beckham pardoned from the penitentiary, Joseph Landis, 16 years old, of Chattanooga. The boy was sentenced from Grant county, where he had innocently pleaded guilty to a charge of house-breaking.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well-known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." Penny's Drug Store.

Paynter Draws First Blood

In Election of Lawrence as Speaker of the House.

Joe Embry Wins Great Race For Doorkeeper of the Senate.

Administration Will Win All Along the Line.

FRANKFORT, 6 A. M., Jan. 2.—Henry Lawrence, of Trigg county, was elected Speaker of the House last night over R. W. Miller, of Madison. Lawrence got a majority of the votes and his election was made unanimous. Joe T. Embry, of Stanford, defeated McWaters for Doorkeeper of the Senate 22 to 8. W. J. Gooch, of Simpson, was chosen caucus chairman and Senator Hickman Speaker pro tem. of the Senate.

Eli Brown and McCutcheon will be elected prison commissioners. Paynter, for U. S. Senator, is a sure winner and there is talk of Blackburn and Halde-man withdrawing from the race. Jesse M. Alverson nominated Lawrence in a splendid speech. The administration will win all along the line. W. P. W.
